

CALL FOR APPLICATIONS

Young Public Policy Makers Jamboree "Living out of stereotypes"
March 26-28, 2014 / Bratislava, Slovak Republic
www.nispa.org/v4jamboree

Supported by: International Visegrad Fund, www.visegradfund.org

Organized by: NISPAcee - The Network of Institutes and Schools of Public Administration in Central and Eastern Europe, www.nispa.org

V4 Project partners:

Charles University, Prague, Czech Republic
National School of Public Administration, Poland
Centre for Economic and Regional Studies, Hungarian Academy of Science, Hungary

Leading trainer: Daniel Klimovský, Slovakia

Assisting trainer: Tomáš Jacko, Slovakia

Invited practitioner: Miroslav Beblavý, Member of Slovak Parliament & Associate Professor / Researcher, Faculty of Social and Economic Sciences, Comenius University

Project manager: Elena Žáková, zakova@nispa.org

Jamboree venue: Bratislava, Slovak Republic

Target group / eligible applicants:

Young public policy and administration professionals from V4 countries (Czech Republic, Hungary, Poland, Slovak Republic) - represented by MA and PhD students of Public Policy and Public Administration and new graduates of PA and PP who are, in some way, involved in public policy making.

Objective: To initiate and encourage cooperation and networking, and to find a new informal way of thinking for young public policy professionals and future policy makers in the V4 region.

Expected outputs: - An e-publication, with a set of selected case studies, developed by participants in the Jamboree, which could be utilised for educational activities by the project partner institutions and other NISPAcee member institutions within the V4 countries and beyond.

- An informal network of young public policy and administration professionals from V4 countries for their future cooperation in problem solving cases in practice.

Programme: http://www.nispa.org/projects.php?proj_id=6&sid=1072

Participation fee: The participation of the selected participants is free-of-charge.

Board and lodging: The accommodation in single rooms (max 3 nights) plus meals during the event will be arranged and covered by NISPAcee through the V4 grant.

Travel costs: The travel costs to the venue should be covered by the participants themselves or by their institutions. We are sorry, but these cannot be covered by the grant.

Application process:

- 1, On-line application for the event (precondition is the on-line registration in the NISPAcee database) http://www.nispa.org/events/events_details.php?event_id=54
- 2, Curriculum vitae to be uploaded to your personal profile in the NISPAcee database
- 3, Short abstract of the case study from your own countries/cities on innovations in public policy making - max 1000 characters – to be included in the on-line application.

Deadline for on-line applications: February 20, 2014

All applicants will be informed about the selection results by March 5, 2014.

The selected participants may apply for 22nd NISPAcee Annual Conference "Government vs. Governance in Central and Eastern Europe", May 22-24, 2014, Budapest, Hungary at reduced fee 50%.

Contact:

Ms. Elena Zakova, NISPAcee Project Manager

Phone: +421 2 6428 5435, Fax: +421 2 6428 5557, zakova@nispa.org